MALIKAH SHABAZZ
on
"The Legacy of Malcolm X"

Tuesday, February 9
7:00 p.m.
Hahn University Center

The youngest daughter of Malcolm X, Malikah Shabazz has founded a worldwide Black student association, the National Organization of African Students in America, to provide mentoring and support to high school and college students and to prepare them to live realistically in a multicultural America. Ms. Shabazz addresses groups across the country on her father's legacy and also is a designer who specializes in architecture and city planning.
